

First, draw a picture and write about how you could help someone bigger than you.

Then, draw a picture and write about how someone little could help you.

