2. Ask classmates to tell you who the person is, what the place is (where they are), and to name the object they are holding.
3. Provide the definition of a noun (a noun names a person, place, or thing). Students repeat the definition.
4. Choose a new volunteer and repeat the demonstration as many times as needed.
5. Conclude by directing to online activities (Nouns in Space, Noun Jump, Noun Jump 2).

EXTENSION ACTIVITY SUGGESTIONS

1. Students partner and make up a silly sentence to share with their partner (including a person, place, and thing). The students will need to name the nouns (person, place, and thing) their partner used in the sentence. The students will take turns making up the sentences and naming the nouns used.
2. Provide old magazines. Students create a collage by gluing pictures on a paper with three sections labeled person, place, and thing.
