

☞ Draw a line to connect any subject with any predicate. to create complete sentences.

The elephant

flies a kite

The alligator

bounces the ball

The kangaroo

climbs a tree

The lion

plays the piano

REMEMBER

A subject contains a noun or pronoun that names who or what the sentence is about.

A predicate contains a verb that tells what the subject is doing.

☞ Combine any subject with any predicate from above to write complete sentences below.

1. _____ (subject) _____ (predicate)

2. _____ (subject) _____ (predicate)

3. _____ (subject) _____ (predicate)

4. _____ (subject) _____ (predicate)

☞ Choose your favorite sentence from above. Flip this page over and write a sentence about what might happen next. Circle the subject and underline the predicate.