Gus said, "Look! That cup has a bug in it."

"How did a bug get in the cup?" said Zac.

"He fell in the cup. His wings are all wet."

"A bug can not swim like a duck can," said Gus.

Peg said, "The bug is sad. He wants to get out of the cup."

"What can we do to help the bug?" said Zac.

"I could fix a ramp. It will help the bug get out of the cup," said Gus.

Gus put a stick down in the cup. The bug went up the ramp.

"The bug is out of the cup!" said Peg.
